Air Force Seeking Registered Nurses

Registered nurses now have an opportunity of looking into the possibility of a duty assignment with the United States Air Force. This announcement was made by SSgt. Raymond Stauble, local Air Force Recruiter.

Sergeant Stauble stated that there are few careers which offer as many exciting opportunities as that of the Air Force Nurse. Girls not only practice their chosen profession and serve their country but have an unusual opportunity for world travel and adventure as well. If a registered nurse is qualified and accepted, continued Sergeant Stauble, they will join more than 10,000 people already dedicated to the care of Air Force personnel and their families. As a member of this elite corps, nurses work in modern well equipped hospitals, with Air Force Physicians and in association with other well trained members of the USAF Medical Service.

As an officer in the Air Force Nurse Corps, girls will enjoy a generous base pay, tax exempt allowances for food and housing, a thirty day paid vacation each year and at the same time you will belong to an organization that is friendly, full of energy and always looking ahead to the future.

For full and complete information about the Nurse Corps, contact Sergeant Stauble at FAirfax 8-1404 or visit him at the Air Force Recruiting Office at 1616 Cabrillo Avenue in Torrance.
